

20. STRABENKÜNSTLER-FESTIVAL „GÜTERSLOHER STRABENIFFI“

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 29TH, 2024

Every year international artists get together in Gütersloh to present their skills at “Gütersloher Straßeniffi”. The “Berliner Platz” and the “Konrad-Adenauer-Platz” become the stages for jugglers, acrobats, dancers, magicians, clowns and comedians (no street musicians).

Application:

- Fill out the application form on www.michaeliswoche.de
- Application deadline is 31st of May 2024
- Artists will be chosen up to 16th of June 2024
- All artists will be informed about any further action from 17th of June 2024

Reimbursement of expenses:

- Every artist (solo or group) receives a general allowance of 650,- EURO excl. VAT
- The organizer will not pay any further traveling or subsistence expenses
- The artists retain any tips they receive at their show. The organizer will pay no compensation for any lost tips due to bad weather
- The organizer provides an overnight stay at a hotel (one night; breakfast included) as well as catering on the day of event

Performance location:

- Performances will take place directly in the city center on „Berliner Platz“ and „Konrad-Adenauer-Platz“
- The artists present one show at each location in a rotation-system. A show must take no longer than 30 minutes
- Performance location and playing time take place according to the organizer’s program concept based on the information provided by the artists on the application form
- Electricity points (230 V) are available at both locations
- Both locations are equipped with sound engineering
- Liability is the responsibility of the artists and not the organizer. The artists are required to have adequate insurance coverage

Contact for questions or comments:

Gütersloh Marketing GmbH

Davina Budde

davina.budde@guetersloh-marketing.de

05241 2113643